Freedom Run Across America to Auction ZIPP Wheel for Charity

The Freedom Run Across America will be putting up for auction on www.TriGearTrade.com a ZIPP Speed Shop Sub-9 Disc Wheel that has a retail value of $1875.00. The auction will run from 12:00PM December 1 until 12:00AM January 1st 2009.

Tom Knoll, (a 33 year Marine, 75 years of age and one of the 15 original Ironman athletes from 1978) and his son Warren Knoll completed the 3,300 miles of the Freedom Run Across America. This charitable Run started from San Diego California on March 1st and was successfully completed on July 4th in Washington, D.C.

Tom and Warren have been raising money for three separate charities and the fundraising will continue until the end of the year. The three charities are the Challenged Athlete Fund (CAF), Wounded Warrior Project, and the Sunshine Foundation.

The ZIPP Speed Shop Sub-9 Disc Wheel is unique in that it has been signed by twenty of the top names in the sport of triathlon including recent Ironman World Champions Craig Alexander (AUS) and Terenzo Bozzone (NZ) in addition to Olympic Gold Medalist Emma Snowsill (AUS).

Additional information on the auction can be found online at www.TriGearTrade.com or you can call 414.483.5412. For information regarding the Freedom Run you can go to the website at www.usfreedomrun.com
